VILLAGE OF BROOKLYN.

Boundaries.—That part of the town of Brooklyn, which, by their act of incorporation, is now called the “VILLAGE OF BROOKLYN,” is comprised in the following limits, viz.—“Beginning at the public landing south of Pierpont’s distillery, formerly the property of Philip Livingston, deceased, on the East River; thence running along the public road leading from said landing, to its intersection with Red-Hook lane; thence along said Red-Hook lane, to where it intersects the Jamaica turnpike road; thence a northeast course to the head of the Wallabout mill-pond; thence through the centre of the mill-pond, to the East River; and thence down the East River to the place of beginning.”

NOTE.—The village is divided into five districts, each of which elects two trustees.

The first district is between Hicks-street and the East River, and between Fulton-street and the west village line.

The 2d district is between Fulton and Bridge-streets, and between Sands-street and the East River.

The 3d district is between Fulton and District-streets, and between Hicks-street and Red-Hook lane.

The 4th district is between Fulton and Bridge-streets, and between Sands-street and the south village line.

The 5th district is between Bridge-street and the Wallabout.

ELECTIONS.

The following are the laws as regards elections in this village:—

And be it further enacted, that all elections for Governor, Lieut. Governor, Senators, Representatives in the Congress of the United States, Members of Assembly, Sheriffs, Coroners, Clerks of Counties, and other officers, which now are, or hereafter may be, elective by the people at the general election, shall, in the said Village be by districts ; and that the inspectors of such election shall be appointed by the said Board of Trustees, on, or before the second Monday of September in every year ; who shall elect from among them the substantial freeholders actually resident in each of the said districts of said village, three persons for inspectors of such election, then next to be holden in each district ; any two of whom may act, and in case of the death, refusal, or inability to serve of either of said inspectors, the said Board of Trustees may thereafter appoint others in their places. And the said persons when so appointed, shall be inspectors of the general and village election then next ensuing. And before entering upon the duties of their office, shall take an oath before some magistrate or officer qualified to administer oaths, well, and truly to discharge the duties of their office. And shall in all respects, as inspectors of the general election, conform themselves to the provisions of the existing laws for regulating elections.

And be it further enacted, that an election for village officers shall be held in each of the districts of the said village, on the second Tuesday of October in every year, at such places as the said Board of Trustees may appoint ; and that all such elections shall be by ballot, and be held and conducted by the inspectors appointed to conduct the same, they giving eight days notice of the time and place of holding the same. At which election there shall be chosen for each of the said districts, by the freeholders and inhabitants residing within the same respectively, and who are qualified to vote at town-meetings, two Trustees, who shall be freeholders of the said village, and residents within the district for which they are chosen. And the legal voters residing within the said village, shall at the said election, also choose by a general ticket, a discreet freeholder to the President of the said village, separate and distinct from the said Trustees ; and also, three freeholders to be assessors of the said village ; and every person offering to vote at any such election, shall, at the time of offering his vote, be an actual resident of the district in which the same is offered. Provided that the election for village officers, which by the existing laws would be held in the said village on the first Monday of May next, shall be held therein, notwithstanding the provisions of this act ; and the President, Trustees, and Assessors, chosen at the same, shall continue to hold and enjoy their offices until, and including the last day of December then next ensuing ; and the said village officers to be chosen at the election to be held therein on the second Tuesday of October next, and the officers to be chosen at every election thereafter, shall commence the duties of their respective offices, on the first day of January next following their election ; and shall, and may continue to hold the same for one year from that time, and until others shall be elected and sworn in their places ; and before entering upon the duties of their offices, shall severally take an oath, well and truly to discharge the same.

And be it further enacted, and upon completing the canvass of the votes taken at any such election for village officers, the inspectors of the same shall, thereupon, return and certify the number of votes given for each person, for each respective office, to the Board of Trustees for the time being, within ten days after such election ; who shall thereupon declare the same within ten days thereafter, and give notice to the person so elected, to each respective office as aforesaid, shall within thirty days after such notice, take the oath herein before prescribed. And it shall not be lawful for any member of the said Board of Trustees to hold any office of profit or emolument under the said Board of Trustees.

And be it further enacted, that if there shall happen any vacancy in the office of Trustee, after he shall be so chosen as aforesaid, from any cause whatever, and before the next annual election, it shall be lawful for the said Board of Trustees to direct a new election to be held in the district where such vacancy shall occur, to supply the same ; which election shall be conducted in all respects, like the annual election, by inspectors to be especially appointed therefor. And in case any such vacancy shall happen in the office of the President of the said village, or of the Assessors of the same, the said Board of Trustees shall and may forthwith, proceed to supply such vacancy, by nominating and appointing some suitable person to assume and discharge the duties of such office, so vacant aforesaid; he first taking the oath herein before prescribed. And, in case of temporary absence from the village of the President of the same, the said Board of Trustees shall appoint from their own numbers a President pro tempore, who shall, during such absence, preside at the meetings of the Board, and discharge all the duties appertaining to the office of President—provided that such appointment shall not disqualify the person so appointed from acting in the capacity of Trustee of said village.

SCHOOLS.

MESSRS. EAMES and PUTNAM'S ENGLISH AND CLASSICAL HALL—Washington near Concord street.

The building is spacious and airy, situated within a few yards of the highest point of ground in the village, with apartments, desks, globes, large maps, and apparatus suited to the several branches of instruction. Four quarters in a year, of twelve weeks each, ending May 6th, July 31st, November 20th, and February 12th. But one vacation, and that four weeks in August.

Scholars received at any time.

BROOKLYN ACADEMY—Is situated at the corner of Henry and Pineapple streets, in a high and airy part of the village.

H. SEYMOUR & M. T. MERWIN, Principals.

In this institution are taught all the branches of ordinary English education, together with all the classical studies required for entering any class in college. Also, the French and Spanish Languages. Strict attention will be given to the manners and morals of the pupils, and none known to be of immoral habits, will be admitted. Board can be had on favorable terms, with the Principals, or in respectable families near the school.

BROOKLYN COLLEGIATE INSTITUTE, FOR YOUNG LADIES.

This institution was incorporated in April 1829, with a capital of $30,000; the whole of which capital was expended in the lands and buildings the following year. It is designed to afford young ladies the same advantages in acquiring an education that are enjoyed by the other sex in our colleges. Seventy-five pupils can be accommodated as boarders, in the family of the principal. The building is constructed of brick; length 75 feet; breadth including the portico and rear piazza, 75; height with the basement, 4 stories, and contains 40 rooms.

Charles Baisley, A. M. Principal, assisted by five professors, and seven instructresses.

E. KINGSLEY'S SCHOOL—No. 241 Washington street.

In this School pupils of both sexes are instructed in the ordinary branches of an English education.

The town of Brooklyn is divided into eight School Districts three of which are within the incorporated limits, viz: No. 1, comprising all that part of the village lying south of Sands street, and east of Fulton street; No. 7, all that part of the village lying east and north of Fulton and Sands street; No. 8, all that part of the village lying south and west of Fulton street.

District No. 1, School-house corner of Adams and Concord street. F. R. Hulburt, Teacher.

This school house has three apartments, and is sufficiently large to accommodate 300 pupils. In addition to the Principal, it has one female and two male assistants. The plan of instruction is of the inductive or analytical order. Price of tuition one dollar and fifty cents per quarter. There is a vacation of two weeks in the month of August.

Trustees—Eliakim Raymond, Ralph Malbone, Elijah Lewis.

District No. 7, School house corner of Prospect and Adams street. Ebenezer Lattimore, Teacher.

This school house has two apartments, and can accommodate 200 pupils; one of the apartments is managed by a lady. The terms of tuition are one dollar and fifty cents per quarter. Vacation in August.

Trustees—Messrs. Coope and Butler.

District No. 8, School house Middagh street, William Belden, Teacher.

This school house has one apartment, and can accommodate 125 pupils. Prices of tuition from two to two dollars and fifty cents per quarter. Vacation, we believe, in August.

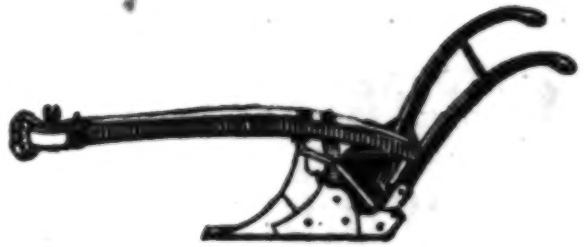

Trustees—Mr. Van Sinderen, George Hall, L. Van Nostrand.

These Schools have been conducted with signal success. In them are taught all the branches of a sound English education.

SELECT SCHOOL.

A. HEGEMAN has opened a SELECT SCHOOL, in the building lately erected by the Second Presbyterian Congregation, in Adams street, between Concord and Nassau.

Rates of Tuition, from Six to Eight Dollars.
